

Hitler's Germany, 1929–41

Key Questions:

Why did Hitler gain power in 1933?

- Problems facing Weimar politicians from 1929
- Growth of support for Nazism after 1929
- Hitler's appointment as Chancellor
- Consolidation of power, 1933–34

How was Germany governed by Hitler?

- Hitler's aims in government and administration: establishing the Nazi state
- Means of control, e.g. use of propaganda and use of terror
- Persecution of Jews and other minorities
- Aims of, and developments in, foreign policy

How effective were Hitler's economic policies?

- Changing priorities of economic policy
- Responses to the Great Depression
- Key policies in agriculture and industry
- Impact of foreign policy on the economy

How far did society change because of Hitler's regime?

- Reasons for, and impact of, policies towards women and children
- Policies towards religion
- Life under the Nazi regime, e.g. standard of living, consumer goods, leisure time
- Level of support for the Nazi regime