ENGLISH DEPARTMENT: SCHEME of WORK OVERVIEW iGCSE English Literature (from 2016)

Coursework:

Overall Objectives	AO1 : show detailed knowledge of the content of literary texts in the three main forms (drama, poetry and prose),
	supported by reference to the text AO2: understand the meanings of literary texts and their contexts, and explore texts beyond surface meanings to show deeper awareness of ideas and attitudes # A03 : recognise and appreciate ways in which writers use language, structure and form to create and shape meanings and effects A04 : communicate a sensitive and informed personal response to literary texts.

PLTS/6R's	Independent Enquirers
	Self Managers
	Reflective thinkers

SUGGESTED TASKS - examples	ASSESSMENTS
 SUGGESTED TASKS - examples How do you think Shakespeare makes Lady Macbeth's change during the course of the play so dramatic? How does [your chosen poet] strikingly convey the loss of childhood innocence in two of the poems studied? In what ways does Williams powerfully convey the tensions in the relationship of Blanche and Stanley in A Streetcar Named Desire? 	ASSESSMENTS An essay of 600 – 1,200 words for each assignment

Resources	iGCSE Literature Coursework Handbook iGCSE Literature Examples of Student work iGCSE Literature Classroom Activities iGCSE Literature Learner Guide

KNOWLEDGE	SKILLS
 Shows knowledge of the text by making a wide range of points and textual references knowledge of the ways that the writer achieves effects through language, structure and form shape meanings and effects 	 points are made clearly and developed into a coherent argument sustained critical analysis in which points are clearly substantiated by means of well-selected references and brief, apt quotations which are integrated

the text i.e. plot,	 incorporates well-selected reference to the text critical vocabulary is used economically and effectively produce a convincing and informed personal response which engages with the task .
---------------------	---