

iGCSE SUCCESS CRITERIA – ASSIGNMENT 2 – INFORM/ANALYSE/ ARGUE

TASK _____

ALF'S (shouldn't need to be said at this point but.....)

Capital letters at the start of the sentence
Capital letters for names of people and places
Full stops (exclamations or questions marks) at the end of a sentence
Key words spelled correctly
Apostrophes (for omission) in the right place e.g. don't Ideas organised into paragraphs

BAND 5 (21-25)		BAND 6 (26-30)		BAND7 (31-35)
Satisfactory content with brief development and acceptable expression		Competent writing with some development of ideas		Frequent merit and interest in content and manner or writing
Clearly express what is felt and imagined		Clearly express what is felt and imagined and supply some detail		Describe and reflect on experience analysing, with occasional success, what is felt.
Arguments are relevant to the topic and are developed partially with some brief effectiveness.		Arguments are expressed in a competent series of relevant points. A clear attempt is made to develop some of them		Some argument is well developed and interesting, although the explanation may not always be consistent.
Writing occasionally competent using a mixture of effective and straightforward vocabulary.		Competent writing using appropriate if sometimes unadventurous vocabulary		Write with some confidence using emerging range of varied vocabulary
Occasional unsustained evidence of adapting to audience and context.		Clear attempt to adapt style to context and audience		Write appropriately for audience and purpose
		Sentences mostly link ideas successfully		Some fluency in the construction of sentences
Limited range of punctuation and grammatical structure.		Use punctuation competently although range is not strong		Some understanding of how punctuation can be used to aid communication
Numerous errors of grammar and punctuation		Competent punctuation and grammar – some minor errors		Errors of spelling and punctuation rare
Evidence of overall structure, but with inconsistencies.		Sentences mostly link ideas successfully.		Sentences within paragraphs are well structured
		Clear attempt to present facts, ideas and opinions in an orderly way. Some insecurity in overall structure.		Facts, ideas and opinions are often well ordered so that the construction of the writing is clear.

iGCSE SUCCESS CRITERIA – ASSIGNMENT 2 – INFORM/ANALYSE/ ARGUE